Have you made your reservations for the KOS Spring Meeting April 25-27, 2003 ?

Rooms are only being blocked for KOS at Blue Licks State Park until February 15, 2003.
Then, they will be released to the public.

You can make reservations by calling 800/443-7008.

Lodge rooms are $45.00 per night single occupancy or $55.00 double occupancy; two-bedroom cottages are $98 per night; the campground provides 52 sites with utilities.

Blue Licks State Resort Park is located in Mount Olivet, Ky.

Feel free to visit their website at > <http://www.bluelicksbattlefield.com/>

We will be celebrating the 80th Anniversary of the Kentucky Ornithological Society at this meeting!

Bob Russell from Mendota, Minnesota will present a Shorebird Identification Workshop on that Saturday afternoon and he will also be the featured speaker for the Saturday evening program with a Shorebird Migration presentation. Mr. Russell is a Nongame Bird Biologist and the Midwest shorebird coordinator with the USFWS Division of Migratory Birds in Twin Cities, MN.

And the new Annotated Checklist is at the printer now and will be available for sale at this meeting!

We will mail a full meeting schedule with the next Ky. Warbler issue and we will post one on the KOS website as soon as the agenda is finalized. Hope you can join us!

Have you sent in your 2003 KOS Membership Dues ?

Members received a 2003 dues envelope included with their last mailing. Thanks to the many that have already submitted their dues! If you haven't had a chance to send yours in yet, please remit them as soon as possible in the dues envelope provided. If you have misplaced your envelope or if you would like to become a new member of the Kentucky Ornithological Society, a Membership Application is available at <http://www.biology.eku.edu/KOS/membership.htm> and can be mailed to the KOS Treasurer, Jim Williams, at 480 Seeley Drive, Lexington, KY 40502-2609.

Mark your calendar now for the 2003 KOS Fall Meeting !

This year's Fall meeting will be held at the Day's Inn in Henderson, Ky. October 3-5, 2003

With featured speaker
Jon Dunn !

Jon Dunn has extensive knowledge of the identification and distribution of North American birds and has written or co-written numerous papers that have appeared in a wide variety of journals. Jon Dunn and Kimball Garrett co-authored Field Guide to the Warblers of North America (1997). Jon was chief consultant to the National Geographic Society's Field Guide to the Birds of North America, the fourth edition of which was released in October 2002. He is a member of the American Birding Association's Board of Directors and is one of the consultants for ABA's magazine, Birding. Jon is also a Senior Leader for WINGS, Inc.

We look forward to Jon's visit and to birding at the Henderson
Sloughs Wildlife Management Area !

Good Birding in 2003 and Happy 80th Anniversary to KOS !
